The interment will be in the Elmwood cemetery.

The body of Hiram Averill, son of Lewis K. Averill, who was drowned at Rhine, N. Y., a week ago yesterday, is still unrecovered, as is also the body of the young man who was drowned with him. Porter Averill, brother of Hiram, returned from Rhine Friday night. He states that on account of the lake being so large and deep and the place where the canoe is supposed to have capsized being unknown, it is useless to drag for the bodies. The only thing to be done is to wait for the bodies to rise to the surface. On account of the coldness of the water in the lake the bodies will be a much longer time in rising. The usual time for bodies to rise where the water is not too cold is nine days.

Meeting of the Board of Trade. A special meeting of the Board of Trade will be held at their rooms in the upper floor of the Averill block on Monday, May 17, at 8 o'clock p. m.
